PUBLISHED ANNUALLY BY THE JUNIOR CLASS

Library - St. Joseph's College for Women
Clinton Avenue
Brooklyn, N. Y. 11205

Four years ago we stood at the threshold of our college life. Now, we are graduating from St. Joseph's. We realize the privilege that was ours—the sacrifice that made it possible and the sympathy, understanding and guidance that accompanied us every step of the way. To you, our parents and our faculty, we dedicate this yearbook, in humble appreciation of the opportunity that was given to us and with the hope that we will go forth, enriched by our greater knowledge and love of God, in a search for truth and beauty, to some day make you proud of us. This will be but a token of our gratitude for the abundance of love that you have showered upon us.

Seniors

GERTRUDE LORETTA ACOGLIA

Sociology Psychology

Gertrude has contributed her fine voice and hours of work to help make the Glee Club the success it is. She also lends a helping hand to the numerous activities of the Religion Committee. The philosophical side of her nature is revealed in her membership in Mercier Circle.

CLAIRE MARIE ARNOLD

Child Study Sociology

Imperturbable and dependable, the Religion Committee always found her ready and cooperative. She actively supports the Child Study Club, and the Glee Club counts her as one of its most tuneful members.

GRACE MARIE ARNONE

Child Study Sociology

The party giver supreme, but we remember her also for her work as the Circulation Manager of Footprints '50 and as a member of numerous Religion Committee activities. She was Chairman of the Entertainment for Parents' Day '50 and is a member in good standing of the Child Study Club.

ANNE MARIE BILLINGS

English History

Avidly interested in world affairs, Nancy was elected to the Presidency of I. R. C. Her major fostered her love for the literary and she is a talented contributor to Loria and also enjoys the lengthy discussions of the Literary Society. As a steady commuter from New Jersey, Nancy has learned to "grin and bear it."

MARION BRIDGET BRACKEN

English Education

Irish wit and a penetrating mind are what she brings to any Mercier session or "Lit" Society discussion. She tops the list of long suffering commuters, but still takes time to attend to Religion Committee affairs and activities.

BEVERLY ELIZABETH BROWN

Sociology Psychology

Straightforward and friendly, "Bev" tempers a practical nature with a keen sense of humor. She has served as Chairman of the Social Science Club and was elected Vice-President of the Freshman Class. Her interests cover a lot of territory, as seen by her enjoyment of Literary Society meetings. Her hilarious performances Junior Class Day and in the S.S. G.A. are proof positive that when "Bev's" around you're sure to have a good time.

HELEN LOUISE BURKE

English Education

She's busy, she's popular and her favorite letter is "A". As President of the Senior Class and Chairman of the Literary Society, Helen rounded out a full four years. She was active in the Religion Committee and Mercier Circle and her scholastic ability is recognized by her membership in Delta Epsilon Sigma.

MARGIE ANTOINETTE CATALANO

French Education

Margie takes great pride in her major field and finds a great deal of enjoyment in its various aspects. The French Club, of which she was President, is but one indication of her interest in le français. She shows her versatility in languages by her regular attendance at Spanish Club meetings and her scholastic aptitude by her membership in Mercier Circle. She finds a practical application of French in visiting the French restaurants around town.

JEANNE MARIE CORBETT

Sociology Psychology

Dubbed "Snow White" by her classmates, you have only to look at her black hair and creamy complexion to see why. Jeanne is a member of the Social Service Club and has also served on the staff of Footprints '50 and on the Farewell Tea Committee in '49. If she's not with her, she's sure to ask, "Has anyone seen Ginny?"

HONORA MARIE CORR

Child Study Sociology

When the Class of '51 needs someone to help them out in intra-murals Nora's their girl. She also devotes much of her energy plus that wonderful smile and winning disposition to the Pre-School. A member of Mercier Circle and the Child Study Club, she takes an active interest in extra-curricular life at St. Joe's.

DOLORES IRENE CRONE

Sociology Psychology

It would be hard to find anyone more absorbed in Music than Dolores. She has a wide knowledge and appreciation of opera and spends many enjoyable hours listening to her collection of records. Her interest in the arts prompted her membership in the Art Club. However, her talents appear in other fields. She belongs to the Psych Club and Mercier Circle. Dolores even took a course in Gaelic at night!

JULIA IMELDA CUMMINGS

English History

Hardly an issue of Loria appears on the scene that does not include some example of Judy's fine writing. As its editor in '51 and also as Co-Chairman of Alumnae Day, she has proved that her ability for leadership more than equals her literary talent. To this efficiency add a dreamy quality and you have that wonderful and unique combination that makes Judy such a grand person to know!

IMMACULATA THERESA CURIALE

Child Study Speech

The Child Study Club has profited by the practice she gets on her unsuspecting nephew. One might call it mischievous, but in "Mackie" it forms the perfect balance for the more serious side of her nature as displayed by her work on the Attendance Committee and her membership in Mercier Circle.

PHYLLIS BERNADETTE D'ANGELO

History Education

Varsity morale benefits from this lively addition to the Class of '51 who is easily voted the most enthusiastic basketball rooter at St. Joe's. As Chairman of the Social Service Club, Phyllis can be justly proud of the work she has done in helping the poor and underprivileged. A member of the International Relations Club also, she still finds time for a quick trip to Murken's or a bit of rhythmic footwork in the "rec" with Jancy.

ELOISE ELVIRA DIFLO

Mathematics Education

St. Joseph's "intelligentsia" list is topped by a quiet retiring miss whose friendliness and cooperativeness are as vast as her intelligence. An almost "straight A" student, Eloise has put her intellectual ability to good use as Secretary of Mercier Circle, a member of Delta Epsilon Sigma, the Math Club and Religion Committee and as a most willing assistant to any student she can help over the "rough spots" of Math.

HELEN THERESE DONAHOE

Sociology Psychology

Helen's poise and efficiency mark her as the logical choice for Business Manager of Loria. She is a diligent worker in student affairs and was elected Chairman of Nocturnal Adoration. Scholastically she rates high, and enjoys membership in Mercier Circle. Just add her sense of humor and those dimples to that good natured disposition and you get a combination that is tops in every way!

IRENE JULIA DONOHUE

Mathematics Education

As Senior Delegate to the N. F. C. C. S., Irene has accomplished a great deal in furthering inter-collegiate relations. She contributes her part to Student Government as a member of the Exam Committee. After her morning session at pupil teaching, she lunches with her friends under the library and discusses the problems of teaching Math to the adolescent. Irene is also a member of Mercier Circle.

RITA JOSEPHINE DORGLER

Sociology Psychology

If the gleam in Rita's eyes seems brighter than usual lately, it might just be a reflection of the gleam on her third finger, left hand. To add to her social whirl, she was elected to the Chairmanship of the Senior Ball. Versatility still undaunted, Rita hasn't allowed this to harm her academic standing—for she's not only accelerating, but a member of Mercier, too.

DOLORES TERESA DUFFY

Mathematics Education

Following her major field Dolores was Co-Chairman of the Math Club in 1949-50. A quiet, pleasant disposition hides her scholastic ability which has earned her membership in Delta Epsilon Sigma and the role of President of Mercier Circle. Her interests are diversified and Dolores can also be found twice a month at the meetings of the Literary Society.

ELLEN ELIZABETH DUFFY

Child Study Sociology

Ellen is extremely interested in her major field as borne out by her attendance every month at Child Study Club meetings. The German Club of which she is a member is another recipient of her fine ability. Scholastically she rates high and enjoys membership in Mercier Circle.

CARYL ANN DWYER

Child Study Sociology

The high note to Caryl's trim appearance is that "well groomed" look. She is a member of the N. F. C. C. S. and also spends a good deal of her time in the Child Study Club. Her avid interest in TV these days has in no way jeopardized her scholastic standing which has merited for her membership in Mercier Circle.

MARY ANN EGAN

Child Study Sociology

As the Chairman of Parents' Day 1950, she won our applause for her poise and good planning. The Mercier Circle includes her in its roster and when it comes to those Child Study meetings, she's a regular contributor. Never without her "other half" Mary and Cathie make an inseparable combination.

GRACE MARIE FALLON

History Education

If you're looking for Grace--listen! You will probably find her at Choir practice. Besides being Chairman of this group she also devotes her time and talent to the G. A. Committee. The Religion Committee is another activity that benefits from her loyal support. Full of fun and fun to be with, Grace has the added honor of membership in Mercier Circle.

MARGUERITE ANN FENTON

Child Study Biology

Her basketball "know how" plus that famous left hook shot gave Marguerite the distinction of being Captain of the Varsity when only a Sophomore. As a Junior she was elected President of the Athletic Association and still found time to make Child Study Club meetings and to devote free hours to the Pre-School. Irish to the nth degree she and Nora can exhibit a lively jig when called upon. A tribute to her wonderful personality and capability was her election to the Vice-Presidency of the U. A.

JOAN MARIE FERRY

English Psychology

Here is a true enthusiast for her major field and especially the American literature sections. She was a firm supporter of Religion Committee activities and found an outlet for that philosophical bent as a member of Mercier Circle. When it comes to the extra-curricular, Joan is ready and able and has served on both the Footprints '50 staff and the Junior Prom Committee.

MAUREEN ANNE FLOOD

Child Study English

A "doodler" at heart, Maureen's sense of humor pops up in the cartoons that adorn the pages of her note book. Her talents also run in other channels and she is a tried and true member of the Choir as well as a member of the Child Study Club. Never at a loss for words, her friendly manner is coupled with a scholastic ability that earned her membership in Mercier Circle.

BERNADETTE MARIE FOLEY

Speech Education

Unknown by any other name but "Bubbles", it's unbelievable that anyone so "blond 'en petite" could possess so much energy. An outstanding member of the Dramatic Society, of which she is Vice-President she also finds time to act as a member of the Exam Committee and as Senior Councilor. Her efficiency and effervescent personality were recognized when she was elected Chairman of Junior Week.

JANE ELIZABETH GALLA

Child Study Sociology

It would be hard to think of Janey without thinking of her basketball brilliance. A four year varsity forward and Captain of the '50-'51 team, she has a record of which she can be proud. Besides this she is also a member of the Child Study and Social Service Clubs. She will long be remembered as part of the Janey, Phyllis duo—specializing in “the dance”—anything from a waltz to a lindy-hop!

SUZANNE MARGARET GANNON

History Education

She puts her major field to good use by participation in I. R. C. and her executive know-how by serving as the St. Joseph's delegate to the N. F. C. C. S. On the lighter side, Susie is recognized as a valuable member of the Extra-Curricular Committee and was active on the staff of Footprints '50. She is known for that engaging grin and those home made lunches.

GERALDINE BERNICE HANLON

Child Study Sociology

Little and loquacious are apt adjectives for Gerry even though she constantly insists that she didn't say anything. She has taken an active part in student government by serving on the Exam Committee and can also be found at the meetings of the Child Study and Social Service Clubs. Her favorite spot used to be in front of the phone booth, where she was forever collecting money for various functions at the College.

ELIZABETH ANN HARKIN

English Education

A regular member of the Choir and Glee Club and often our Chapel organist, Betty's talents are not restricted to the musical field alone. Just ask her opinion on a good elective course and as quickly as she suggests "English" you will know that this '49-'50 Editor of Loria finds as much delight in the literary aspect of her major as in her music.

SALLY CATHERINE HARMON

English History

She is the talented editor of Loria's fiction department. Scotch plaids and the ballet rate her approval and she treasures a yen for a journalism career. Sally puts that wide English background to work when she joins those Literary Society bull sessions.

ALICE TERESA HARRINGTON

Chemistry Bio Physics

Who has seen Alice intent on the performance of an experiment or rushing out to do Cadet Work at Brooklyn Hospital, and not been impressed by her genuine enthusiasm for the science she has chosen as her life's work? Her academic capabilities reflected in her membership in Mercier Circle and her warm interest and helpfulness have benefited the German and Glee Clubs and all those with whom she comes in contact.

BARBARA CECELIA HAWKE

Child Study Sociology

If she's not busy developing her technique with the pre-school children, she is busy helping Student Government at St. Joseph's function. As Treasurer of the Sophomore Class, Secretary of the Athletic Association in her Junior year and Chairman of the Extra-Curricular Committee when a Senior, Barbara has worked hard to make Extra-Curricular Activity an important part of everyone's college life. Her versatility in sports has made her a champion in inter-murals.

MARY JANE HAWKRIGG

Sociology Psychology

Jane has been a welcome member of the Social Science Club and worked hard on its G. A. program. She also adds her bit to Psych Club meetings and has helped out in Religion Committee activities. She'll never pass up a trip to Murken's for that "pause that refreshes".

ELLEN MARIE HEFFRON

Sociology Psychology

A Sociology major, Ellen's interest in the field has been displayed by her active participation in the Social Science Club. Aware of the student's role in the world today she is also a member of the N. F. C. C. S. But her talents are by no means one-sided. Ellen served on the Committee for the Junior-Freshman Tea and did her bit to launch Footprints '50 on its way.

MARY JOAN KEENAN

Child Study Sociology

Whenever she has a free hour you're sure to find Mary Joan in the "rec" knitting away on a pair of argyle socks. She also has the distinction of owning a unique pair of plaid rimmed glasses. Her after class life is a gay social whirl yet she finds time for the Child Study Club and the activities of the N. F. C. C. S.

MARCELLA THERESA KENNEDY

Sociology Psychology

"Marcie" uses her pleasing voice for a worthy purpose as a member of the Choir. The Religion Committee has also benefited from the assistance of this petite miss and she enjoys taking part in Psych Club meetings.

MARY KATHRYN KRUSE

Speech Education

A quick smile and winning personality coupled with capability rank Mary high in life at St. Joseph's. She served as President of the Sophomore Class and Chairman of Freshman Class Day and the Senior Tea. Her tireless efforts helped to establish the Publicity Committee of which she is Chairman. She is also a member of the Religion Committee and Chairman of the G. A. Committee. Scholastically Mary earned a place in Mercier Circle and achieved the honor of membership in Delta Epsilon Sigma.

LUCY ANGELINA LAURENZANO

Chemistry Biology

When Lucy's not bending over a microscope in the "Bio" Lab or on her tip toes peering into a huge distilling flask in the "Chem" Lab, one can be pretty sure to find her at least talking about her favorite major and minor. But her interests are not in one direction only—for many were the times when she aided in A. A. competition or lent a helping hand in German Club activities.

GLORIA THERESA LOPEZ

Spanish Education

When the Spanish Club needed performers for its G. A. programs, it could always depend on this valuable member of the Department. She takes her extra-curricular activity in a musical setting for she is an avid supporter of the Glee Club.

STELLA THERESE MacNEIL

English Education

Everyone knows that the girl with the smile has talent and energy ad infinitum. She has been a Chapel Player for four years, on the Religion Committee and a steady participant at Mercier meetings. Two of the highest offices of Student Government were under her capable supervision when she was elected U. A. Treasurer for '48-'49 and U. A. Secretary for '49-'50.

CLAIRE ANN MacVENN

Child Study Sociology

Claire has every right to develop "writer's cramp" from her capable performance of duty as Secretary of the Senior Class. Petite and with the knack of always being attractively groomed, she has also done a wonderful job presiding at Child Study Club meetings as Chairman of this group. Her work as a member of the Religion Committee rounds out a full and successful college career.

AGNES MARIE MAHER

English Psychology

To Agnes goes the honor and achievement of having launched Footprints 1950 on its way. Her appearance, per usual, at extra-curricular activities at the college helped her in her busy role as Editor-in-Chief. Agnes served as Secretary of the Extra-Curricular Committee and because of her scholastic rating enjoys membership in Mercier Circle.

EILEEN JANE MALLOY

Child Study Sociology

Radiant smile and charming personality cease to be "just words" when applied to Eileen. Her election to Delta Epsilon Sigma and success as Chairman of the Freshman Tea and Secretary of the Religion Committee have undoubtedly proved that she has what it takes both academically and socially.

THERESE MARIE MALONE

Speech Education

She goes down in history for that post-comprehensive party. The Religion Committee had her in its membership and she also did her stint as a part of the newly formed Publicity Committee. That major in Speech was put to good use when Terry took part in several of the Chapel Players' productions.

MARY JOSEPHINE MARON

English Education

Her interest and ability in her major and minor fields offers promise of a laudable career in teaching. She faithfully attends Discussion Club meetings and took part in the activities of the Dramatic Society. On the athletic side, Mary was a supporter of the A. A. and played on the class teams.

JOAN MARY MARTIN

English Psychology

Joan's ability was recognized early in her college career and she was elected Freshman Councillor. She was on the staff of Footprints '50 and likes to take part in the activities of the Psych Club. Joan makes a point of avoiding Friday classes in order to give herself a long weekend at home in Connecticut.

MARILYN RITA MARVIN

Child Study Sociology

Marilyn can always be counted on when it comes to Child Study Club meetings. She is also actively interested in the work of the N. F. C. C. S. As a Junior she found time to help publish Footprints 1950. A good student, Marilyn enjoys membership in Mercier Circle.

JOAN MARIE McCARTHY

English History

Of recent activities we remember the excellent writing-directing job that she did as the Chairman of the January Seniors' G. A. Back in her school career are other successes, however. In Sophomore year she was chosen as the Class Day Chairman and during her Junior year she was the "woman in charge" of that all-important Junior Prom.

JOANNE DOROTHY McGRATH

Sociology Speech

When the task of advertising school activities was passed from the Art Club to the Publicity Committee, Joanne advanced right along with it. As President of the former and active worker on the Art Staff of the latter, she has done much to keep us posted on the "goings-on" here at St. Joe's. The marvelous job she did as Chairman of Sophomore Class Day is just another indication of her many abilities.

CATHERINE ROSEMARY McGUIRK

Child Study Sociology

The Child Study and Social Service Clubs both claim part of "Cathie's" interest and time. Although she is a loyal supporter of A. A. activity, she doesn't need the exercise to keep thin. Tall and slim, she can calmly indulge in frosteds and such, to the exasperation of her less fortunate friends!

LUCILLE REGINA McKEARNEY

Sociology Psychology

"Fuffy" exhibited her basketball skill during her first year at St. Joe's and has proved herself a valuable member of the varsity. She was elected A. A. "rep" and used some of that pep and energy in working on Footprints '50. Good natured and quick to smile, "Fuffy" is a welcome addition to any group.

CAROL FRANCES McNIERNEY

Child Study Sociology

A girl whose interests lie with her major and minor fields, she is an active member of the Child Study Club and a reliable worker for the Social Service Club as well. Carol also helped out on the staff of Footprints '50.

REGINA ELIZABETH McNIERNEY

History Education

As Sophomore Councilor she displayed her ability for leadership and dependability. Her class approved and elected her as its Senior Treasurer. The extra-curricular side of her talents is displayed in her selection as the business Manager of Foot prints '50.

ENES JULIA MORELLO

Child Study Sociology

Deeply interested in her major field, Enes can be found at Child Study Club meetings and at work in the Pre-School. She has contributed to the Psych Club and has shown her cooperative nature as a member of the Religion Committee.

FLORENCE MARY MULVANEY

Mathematics Education

Having done such a great job as Secretary of the A. A. and President of the Junior Class, Florence was readily elected President of the U. A. Her versatility won her a place on the varsity and made her a distinctive member of the Glee Club. To this, add the honor of membership in Delta Epsilon Sigma and you can see why she rates the Unanimous Acclaim of the entire Undergraduate Association.

MARYANNE EILEEN MURPHY

English Education

Tiny and blond, Maryanne has further pursued her major field by joining the ranks of the Literary Society. Besides the enjoyment she gets from English, she also finds an outlet for her interests and talents in the Art Club.

GENEVIEVE SUSANNAH O'BRIEN

Speech Education

Think back over any of the Chapel Players productions and you are sure to remember Genny's sterling performances. She was treasurer of that organization during '49-'50 and appeared in many G. A. programs as a member of the Dramatic Society and the Speech Department. The Religion Committee found her an enthusiastic member, while the Publicity Committee also served as an outlet for the various O'Brien talents.

MARY EDNA O'DONNELL

English Education

An avid cross word puzzle fan, Mary can successfully tackle the best of them. The odd bits of knowledge that she accumulates this way, she puts to use in the various activities in which she is interested. She is a member of the "Lit" Society and the Social Service Club and has also contributed to the work of the N. F. C. C. S.

ANN FRANCES OLIVA

Spanish Education

Ann's interest in her major field prompted her membership in the Spanish Club. Aware of the great need of the poor and underprivileged she joined the ranks of the Social Service Club to assist them in their valuable work. A fine student, she enjoys membership in Mercier Circle.

MARY FRANCES PANDOLFO

Chemistry Mathematics

A quizzical expression combined with a rather uncertain "We-e-ll!?" can only mean that Mary is in the midst of answering a professor's question. Her answers are sure and rapid though, when she takes part in the Biology Club discussions, Religion Committee and A. A. meetings.

LUCREZIA ANN PANZARELLA

Sociology Psychology

Lucy has contributed her vocal talents to the Glee Club and her willing aid to the Religion Committee of which she is a member. Her interest in what makes people tick has found an outlet in the Psych Club.

ANNE LOUISE PICCINI

Child Study Speech

Art work, clever and eye-appealing, made Anne the mainstay of the Publicity Committee and countless decorating committees. She also brought these talents to Footprints when she served as Art Editor in 1950. Her all-round ability was recognized by her election to the Vice-Presidency of the Senior Class.

CONSIGLIA HELENA POMPA

Mathematics Education

If you are looking for versatility and achievement, consider this talented member of Delta Epsilon Sigma and Mercier Circle. The Religion Committee and the Dramatic Society have put her ability to good use and an appreciative class elected her Councilor for 1949-50.

MAUREEN THERESE REID

English Psychology

Maureen's quiet, serene personality finds outlets in her major and minor fields. She is well suited for the intricacies of the Psych Club and the problems of Mercier. Her bent is a thoughtful one, but she finds time for the Religion Committee and much out-of-school editorial work.

JOAN AUGUSTA RICHARDSON

Child Study Sociology

Having successfully served as Vice-President of the Junior Class, Joan's capability and efficiency was recognized by her class and she was elected Chairman of the Christmas Party in 1950. Under her deft management it was, of course, a huge success. Joan can also be proud of her scholastic achievement which has won her a place in Mercier Circle.

MARY ANNE ROSSMAN

Biology Education

Whoever said that science and music don't mix couldn't have known that our Glee Club Secretary and Biology Club President was one and the same person, Mary Rossman. And who could have known Mary without knowing that it was music to her ears to have anyone inquire about the progress of the chicks on which she experimented for so many anxious weeks?

ELLEN JACQUELINE RUPP

Child Study Sociology

Jackie has shown added interest in her major field by her attendance at Child Study Club meetings. She gave her time and ability to the N. F. C. C. S. and did a successful job as Chairman of the Freshmen Luncheon in '49. Her service also helped assemble Footprints '50. Jackie enjoys membership in Mercier Circle.

DOROTHY VERONICA SAUSS

Economics Psychology

Alphabetically, she is the first of the class twins. True devotee of her major, she belongs to both the Social Science and the Social Service Clubs. Mercier also finds her in its circle of membership.

VILMA MARGARET SAUSS

Sociology Psychology

The "other half". Her interests are in Discussion Club meetings and the Social Service Club activities. She was the able director of the S.S. G.A. On the sporting side, Vilma can roll up those bowling scores with the best of them.

VIRGINIA MILDRED SCHARF

Sociology Psychology

Look at Ginny's left hand these days—it sparkles! But not as much as Ginny does, for her energy not only adds zest to the Social Service Club and won her a place on the Senior Prom Committee but also helped publish Footprints '50. Never without Jeanne, "Shorty's" famous last words are "I don't come up much further."

OLIVINE ELIZABETH SCHREINER

Child Study Sociology

Her outstanding scholastic ability has earned her a place in Mercier Circle. Active in her major field, she enjoys attending Child Study meetings and has served as a faithful member of the Religion Committee.

HELEN AGNES SECKENDORF

English Psychology

Dividing her "major" talent between two loves, Helen makes Literary Society meetings and also contributes regularly to Loria. She is an able worker for the Religion Committee and a long standing member of the Choir. In the field of student government she has served as Chairman of the Exam Committee. A member of Mercier Circle, her scholastic achievement has elevated her to the ranks of Delta Epsilon Sigma.

FLORENCE MARY SERGIO

Spanish Education

"Flo" has exhibited her versatility in language by attendance at both Spanish and French Club meetings. Scholastically, she rates high and finds Mercier discussions suited to her philosophical taste. Pupil teaching has given her first hand information in discipline problems.

MARGARET LUCILLE SIMONELLI

Political Science History

When she was Co-Chairman of, and a participant in the Political Science G.A., we discovered how to put a major to work. Naturally, she works for the Social Science and the Social Service Clubs. Mercier also counts her as one of its own.

MARGARET MARY TRACY

History English

As the Chairman of the all-important Attendance Committee, many times she has had a life in her hands. We recognize a philosophical interest in her Mercier membership. However, Peggy handles the lighter side with equal assurance as witnessed by her able Chairmanship of the Entertainment Committee for the Junior Banquet.

EVELYN MARIE TURCK

Child Study Sociology

If anyone could bring out that old school spirit, it would be this energetic captain of our cheerleaders. She does some fancy scoring of her own as a member of the A.A. and the class teams. The Child Study Club holds her interest in the academic field.

JEAN MARIE VALLONE

Spanish Education

Jean has not only shown ability in her major, in the Spanish Club, but has also shown her ability for leadership by her election to the Presidency of this group. She has contributed to numerous activities of the Religion Committee and enjoys membership in Mercier Circle.

JOSEPHINE MARY VIDIRI

English Education

Combine singing talent and leadership and you have our capable Glee Club President. She is a firm supporter of Religion Committee activities, and also contributed to the production of Footprints '50.

JEAN MARIE WALSH

English Education

Jean has led a busy life since the start of her college career. A reliable member of the Religion Committee, she served as Chairman of the First Friday Forums. Her Class elected her A.A. "rep" and she capably fulfilled the task of varsity score keeper. Jean was also Photography Editor of Footprints '50 and is a faithful member of the Choir.

DOLORES PATRICIA WEICK

Sociology Psychology

Extremely interested in her major and minor she has been a valued member of both the Social Science and the Psych Club. Her performance in the S.S. G.A. was a commendable one. Dolores has had a taste of her field's work by helping at the Angel Guardian Home. From that sneak preview she's sure she'll love it!

NANCY ELLEN WELKER

English Education

Nancy has successfully channelled some of that vitality to such worthwhile fields as the Literary Society and the Publicity Committee. An English major to the core, she has proven her literary talents on the staff of Footprints '50 and in her election to the Chairmanship of the Senior G.A.

THERESA MARY WHIFFEN

English Education

The Religion Committee counts her as one of its most diligent and dependable members. As a contributor to the Literary Staff of Footprints '50 and as the Secretary of the Debating Society, she showed an admirable way with words and an easy transfer from her major field.

CATHERINE DOLORES WIGGINS

Child Study Sociology

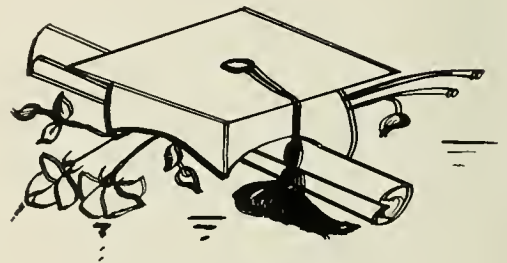

The other member of the Egan-Wiggins duo. Her work on the Parents' Day Committee helped make it the success it was. The Athletic Association relies on Cathy's support and she is ever ready with a contribution for the Child Study Club sessions. Cathy also served as Chairman of the Junior-Senior Theater Party.

JOAN ANN WILLIAMS

Sociology Psychology

As the Class of '51 proudly accepted its A. A. awards, they knew that Joan had been one of their big assets in winning them. For A. A. was always her "pet" extra-"curric" and she served it well as Class Representative, A. A. Treasurer and varsity member. With all the vitality she shows it makes one wonder if we shouldn't all start drinking our quart of milk a day.
